OPTION TWO

(FOR TEACHER OR STUDENT DRAWING TO SUPPORT DEFINITION)

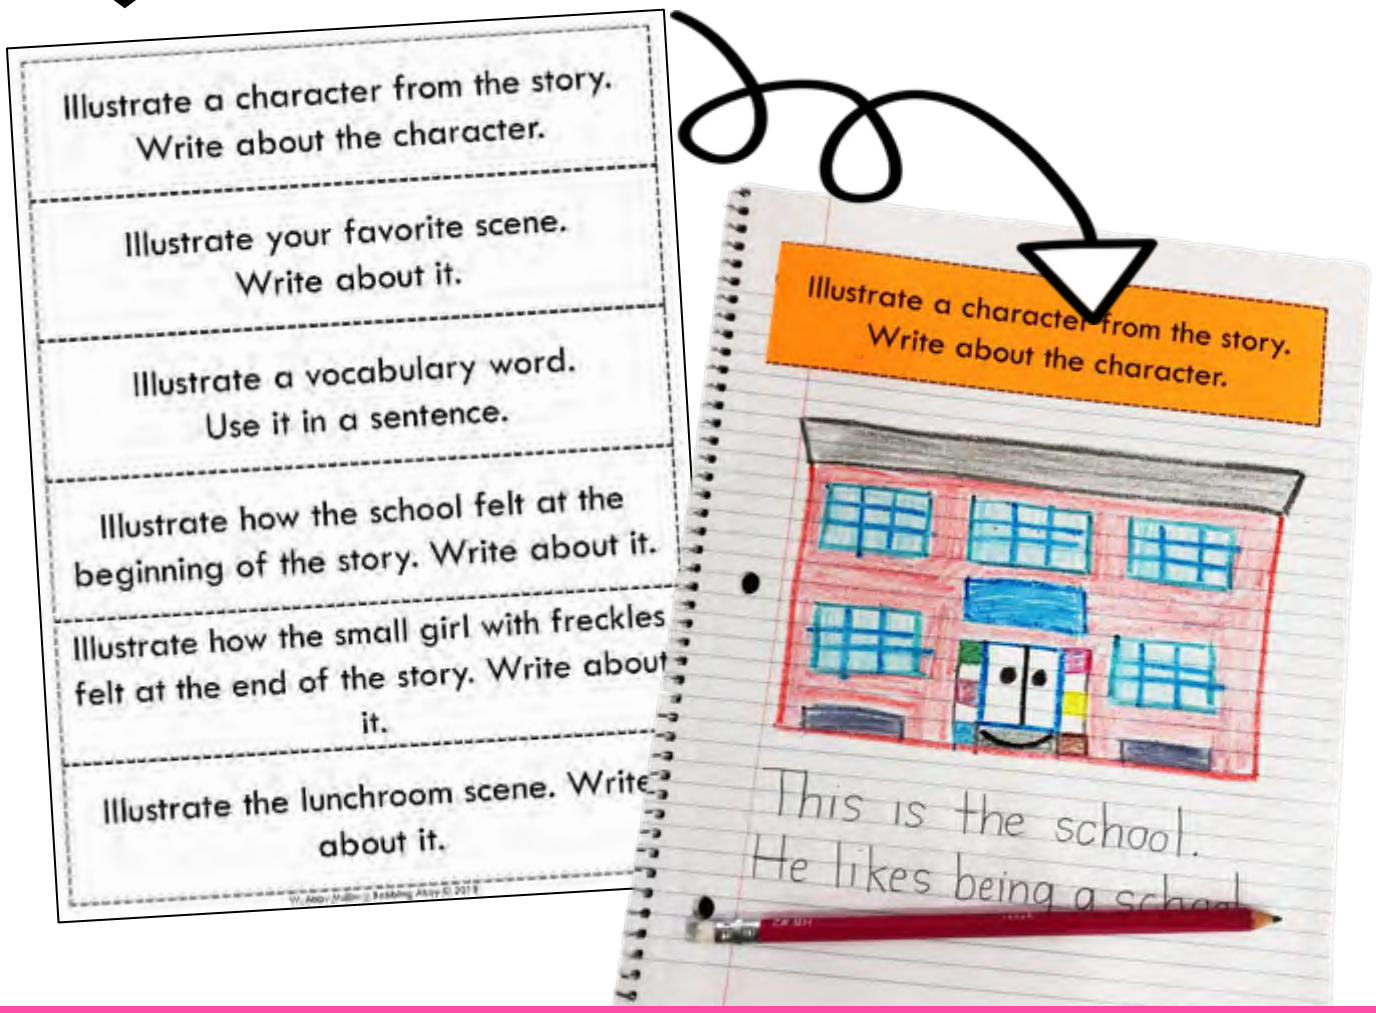
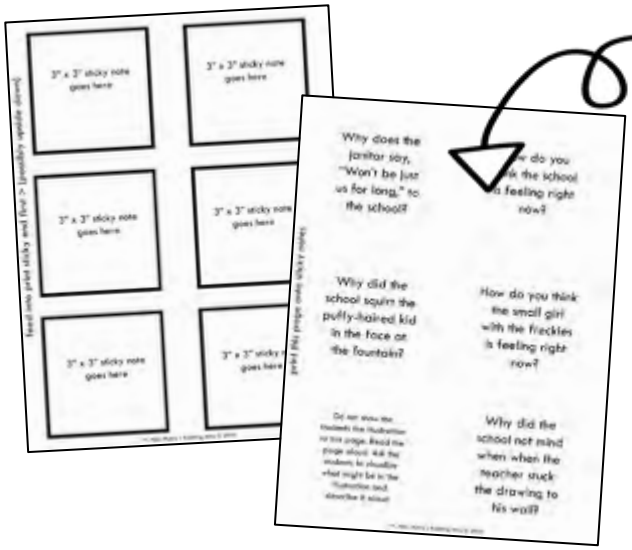
WRITING PROMPTS



Each Focused Read-Aloud includes six different writing prompts. Print, cut apart, and have students paste onto paper or into their journals. The intention is that every student isn't answering the same prompt, so that they can share their responses with partners, in a small group, or with the class.

TEXT DEPENDENT QUESTIONS



WHILE READING:

Print these questions on sticky notes and stick into book before reading as markers to remind you to ask your students questions while reading.

These text-based questions make it easy to structure your read-aloud and check for comprehension while reading. Visit bit.ly/PrintableStickies for a printable sticky note tutorial!

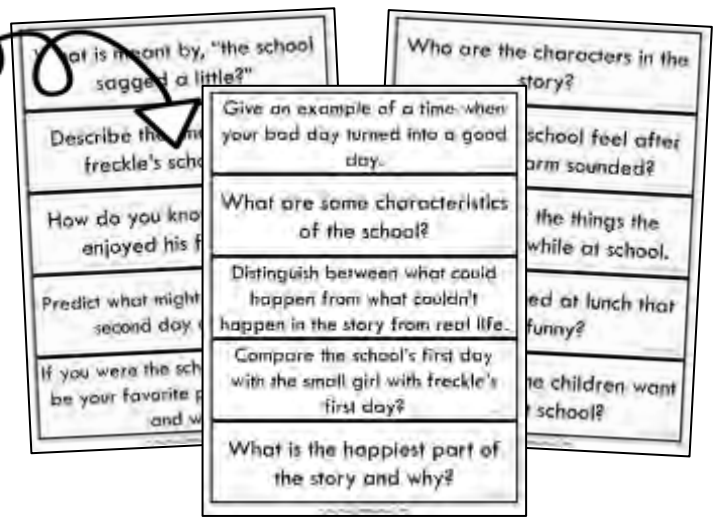
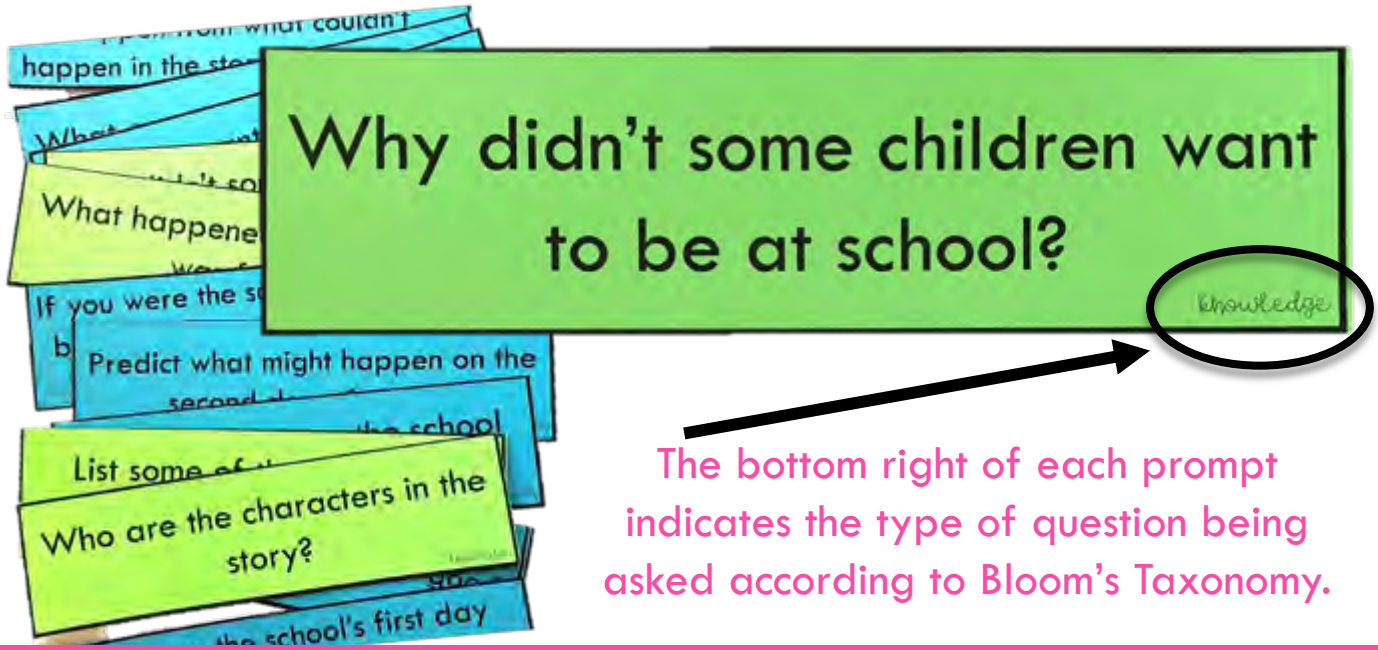
TEXT DEPENDENT QUESTIONS

AFTER READING:

Cut and laminate these questions and put into pocket at the end of the book. Use these questions to further comprehension after reading.



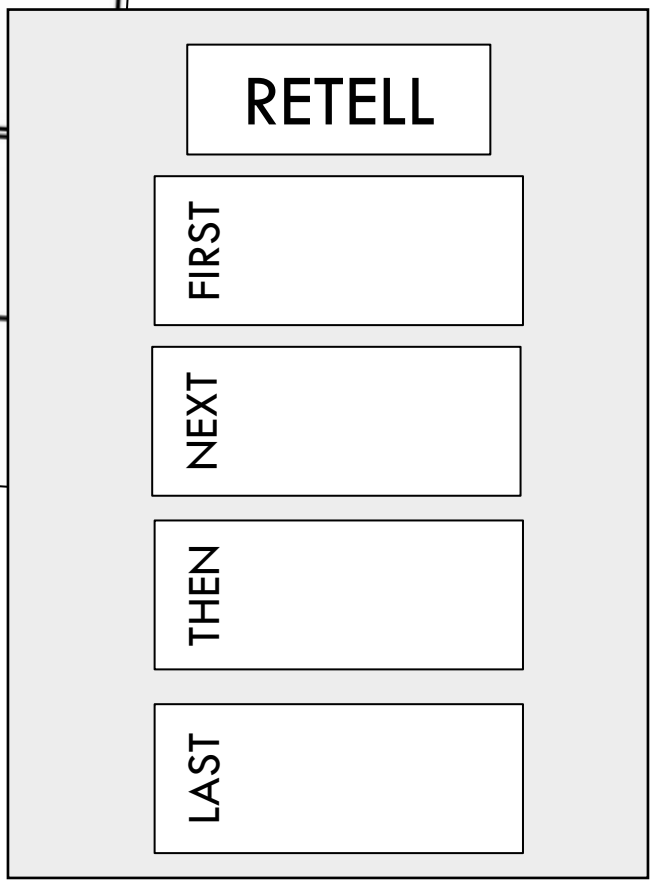


The bottom right of each prompt indicates the type of question being asked according to Bloom's Taxonomy.

These text-based questions make it easy to check for comprehension and ensure you are asking higher level questions after your reading.

COLLABORATIVE POSTERS

PLEASE NOTE: THESE ARE SAMPLES AND ARE NOT NECESSARILY INCLUDED IN THIS PACK. THE TEMPLATES ARE BOOK-SPECIFIC AND CHANGE ACCORDING TO THE STANDARD(S) ADDRESSED DURING THE FOCUSED READ-ALOUD.



Use the header to label the poster and then use the other pieces to complete the poster by illustrating and/or writing on or under them.

Each Focused Read-Aloud includes at least one set of collaborative poster templates. These can be used for a teacher-created poster during whole group instruction, or can be given to the students to work in small groups to construct the poster together – a great way to reinforce the ELA skill(s) taught.

DIFFERENTIATED COMPREHENSION CHECKS

Each Focused Read-Aloud includes three differentiated comprehension checks that address the vocabulary and literacy skills outlined on the guide. They focus on Kindergarten, First Grade, or Second Grade standards. Print double-sided and fold in half.
